

La Société Française de St. Louis

invites you to come and hear
World War I – related narratives

An Evening of Memories on World War I

Friday, Sep.7, 2018, 7pm

Alliance Française de Saint Louis
930 N. McKnight Rd., University City, MO 63132
www.societefrancaisestl.org

(see program on back)

An Evening of Memories on World War I

Friday, Sep.7, 2018, 7pm, Alliance Française de Saint Louis

Artifact exhibition

Randy Beck : “Over There: Americans in France during the Great War.”

Program:

I – Memories:

Elizabeth Allen, Ph. D.:

“Three Women, 1914-1918.”

Anne Craver, Ph. D.:

“In Memory of Louis Jouniaux and WWI Poems: Sandburg’s « Grass » and Apollinaire’s « Si je mourrais là-bas ».”

Isabelle Heidbreder, Director, Alliance Française de St. Louis:

“WWI, The Animal Factor: Animals in the War.”

Elsie Parker, Musician:

“American Soldier Raymond T. Parker-wounded in action Meuse-Argonne, with unusual assignments while in recovery.”

Mimi Stiritz, President, Les Amis:

“Alexander Nicolas DeMenil: French Creole Response to American Neutrality and the Politics of St. Louis Ethnics, 1914-1917.”

(all presentations 10 minutes)

II – Short Documentary Films (presented by Jean-Louis Pautrot):

Frances Cluett, infirmière de guerre

Les Harlem Hellfighters

James Reese Europe, Jazz King of WWI

Eugene Jacques Bullard, first African-American War Pilot